

Links Page for Chubbly the Aviator.

Chubbly is very happy to offer you the following links and also hope that you will visit these suggested places on the internet. Chubbly would be more than happy to place your link here with two provisos: firstly, that the link has something to do with the business of Children's Books or book Illustration; secondly, that you are prepared to put his link on your site. If you want a link please provide the following:

1. I will need a text description of your site in no more than thirty words.
2. Send me a JPEG image of your site (or your logo) exactly 150 x 176 pixels in size.
(I cannot adapt any other image format or size)
3. Create a link on your 'links page' to my site www.chubblytheaviator.co.uk
(I will send you the link descriptive text and an image by return)

If you do the above and send your site details in an email, I will certainly consider your request.
